

Graduate Assistantship Opening University Housing: Business Operations

The Office of University Housing invites applications from master's degree seeking graduate students to fill the following Fall 2024 – Spring 2025 graduate assistantship position.

Primary Duties and Responsibilities:

Graduate students hired in assistantship positions in the Office of University Housing will be responsible for, but not limited to:

- Facilitate housing assignments for each semester
- Receive daily and weekly reports from the housing management software to prepare assignments for incoming students
- Ensure roommate group verifications are completed
- Coordinate specific group assignments including but not limited to J1 visiting interns, IEP students, LLC groups, athletics, etc. with campus department contacts
- Help manage Emotional Support Animal (ESA) application process
- Ensure room change requests are answered and completed within specific timeframe
- Coordinate with office staff any housing assignment situations
- Coordinate with Summer Camps Coordinators to ensure housing assignments are done for all summer camp participants
- May be asked to perform special projects or tasks

Additional General Expectations:

- Must be able to work flexible schedule (nights, weekends, holidays)
- Must be available for all semesters including summer
- Must be proficient in Microsoft Office especially Excel
- Have knowledge of office procedures including filing, typing, and phone skills.
- Possess the ability to demonstrate the following qualities: professionalism, effective leadership skills, personal maturity, dependability, motivation, initiative, integrity, responsibility, discretion, strong interpersonal communication skills (oral and written)

Eligibility and Additional Considerations:

Students in the MBA graduate programs are eligible to apply. Consideration may be given to graduate students pursuing a degree program and research focus with direct connection to the duties described above.

Graduate assistantship appointments with University Housing are for the academic year, beginning in August 2024.

Appointment requires unconditional admission, full-time graduate enrollment, and satisfactory completion of 20 hours of in-person, on-campus duties each week during the academic terms. Appointment does not require completion of duties when classes are not in session (i.e., during intercessions and student breaks).

Continuation of appointment to Spring 2025 and beyond is contingent upon successful completion of assistantship duties, satisfactory progress toward degree, and/or budgetary considerations.

If an international graduate student, your visa status may place restrictions on your employment eligibility; if you are not certain if your visa status permits holding an assistantship, contact the Office of International Affairs in the Division of Global Engagement

Compensation:

Compensation includes a waiver of tuition and mandatory fees, plus a monthly stipend that adheres to University minimum levels.

- For the 2024-2025 academic year, the minimum stipend is $1,150 per month for master's students, totaling $11,500 paid over ten months.
- While the 2024-2025 tuition and fees are not yet set, using 2023-2024 rates, the tuition/fee waiver for an academic-year assistantship is valued at $10,184 for U.S. resident graduate students and $25,610 for non-resident international graduate students enrolled in 9 graduate credit hours per semester. For students taking more credits, this benefit is even higher.
- The accompanying fee waiver does not cover 100% of the supplemental insurance fee for international students on F-1, J-1, or other non-immigrant visas.

To Apply:

Send a letter of application/interest, resume or CV, and contact information for professional references to oncampusliving@louisiana.edu.

Questions should be directed to Ellen Clements, Assignments Coordinator.

Review of applications will begin immediately.