Walk of Honor

Here at the University of Louisiana at Lafayette, the universities “Walk of Honor” is paved with bricks that are engraved with graduates name.

The walkway begins near Martin Hall and surrounds the Quad. Alumni are now offered to take this tradition home by purchasing a commemorative brick paver that is personalized with their name and graduation year!

As a group, we searched the Walk of Honor and found one of the two bricks for Professor Hargrave!

Study Group

Learning how to manage your time in college can be really difficult for some student, especially your freshman year. Finding a group of people to study with is a great way to hold yourself accountable for your own school work. Studying alone can be boring and overwhelming; however, studying with a group of people can be more fun and allow one to understand material better.

Follow 5 campus Organizations

As students, we are blessed to have tons of different social media pages that can help us navigate our way through college. Whether they are made to entertain us, guide us with our academics, or inform us about different events happening, they are all helpful.

Here are the five that we have chosen to follow!

Free Lunch/ Wisdom Mass

Instead of attending free lunch as a group we attended a mass at Our Lady of Wisdom Church here on campus. There are many different Catholic and religious groups that are offered here on campus. At mass, Father gave his homily about the importance of giving to others; no matter how big or small the gesture is, it is the thought that matters!

Workout at Bourgeois

Bourgeois Hall is an awesome place for the students of UL. The hall has a fitness center, outdoor pool, rock wall, classrooms, and many other things for students to enjoy.

As a group we worked out together in Bourgeois!

Career Closet

The University Of Louisiana at Lafayette has its own Career Closet. This is a place that students can rent, buy, or sell clothing. Career Closet comes in handy for students who may need business attire for an interview, jury duty, or just everyday clothing. There are also a few canned goods for students who are in need as well!

As a group we took a trip to Career Closet!

Interview A Student Leader

What is your name, major, and class:
where are you from?

My name is Syed Jasim Reza Aliand
I am a senior studying mechanical engineering. I am from Lafayette Louisiana.

What made you choose UL?

As an immigrant, I came here and it was just me and my tight knit family of four. When it came picking a college I knew that I didn't want something too far. With that in mind UL was my first choice and i do not regret it at all.

What is your role as a student leader?

I have been involved in many different groups since I have come to UL but I will talk about the main ones. First, I have been part of Soul Camp, which is an extended part of orientation, for three years. I have been part of the leadership team for student government, and I have also been part of student government for 4 years. I started off as freshman President and senator
for the College of Engineering and now I am the student body Vice President. I am now serving as Chapter President in my fraternity, Sigma Chi.

Hilliard Art Museum

The Hilliard Art Museum is a museum located in Lafayette, Louisiana. It is the art museum for the University of Louisiana at Lafayette and is named after Paul and Lulu Hilliard. Paul and Lulu donated $5 million for the building's construction.

Here is a look at our trip to the museum!

Cultural Music Event

There are many different cultural music events that take place in Lafayette. One of the biggest Music events that happen here in Lafayette is Downtown Alive.

Downtown Alive a free, family-friendly concert series in Lafayette, Louisiana that takes place on the first Friday of the month in the spring and fall. Another hot spot for our cultural music is near the tailgate area of each home game.

Here is Savannah at Downtown Alive and enjoying local artist Dustin Sonnier!

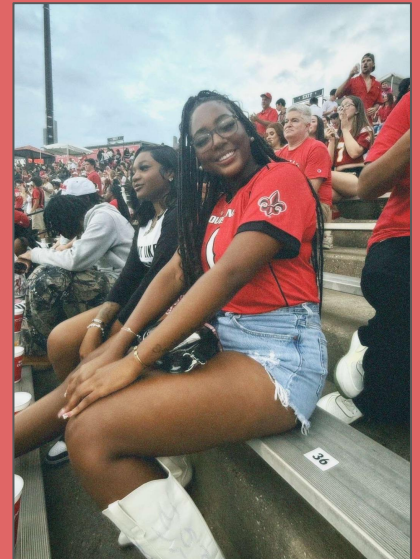

Savannah's parents joined in on the fun!

Athletic Event

What better way to show some school spirit than attending a Cajun Football Game! Our stadium is currently under construction and has added many new awesome lighting and firework effects.

Our group attended the Homecoming Football Game that the Cajuns defeated Arkansas State!

Savannah is on the sidelines!
