Welcome, Family and Friends

The University of Louisiana at Lafayette welcomes you, the families and friends of our distinguished graduates. UL Lafayette isn't just a university. It's a community and you're an important part of it.

Since its founding in 1898, the University has been dedicated to improving the lives of its students. Each academic year, more than 3,000 students receive degrees.

We join you in honoring our graduates and celebrating their accomplishments as they begin a new chapter in their lives.

Walk of Honor

Visitors to the UL Lafayette campus enjoy looking for graduates' names on the Walk of Honor. The walkway is paved with bricks engraved with graduates' names, arranged alphabetically by year. The bricks begin near Martin Hall with the Class of 1903, fill the arched walkways and sidewalks of the Quad, line Boucher Street, continue along McKinley Street and around the Student Union. Those who earn multiple degrees from UL Lafayette receive a brick for each graduation year.

ABOUT THE UNIVERSITY

The University of Louisiana at Lafayette has a reputation for academic excellence, community service and its Ragin' Cajuns spirit.

Established July 14, 1898, it is the largest university in the University of Louisiana System and the second largest in the state. It has one of the highest graduation rates among Louisiana's public universities.

The Carnegie Classification of Institutions of Higher Education, the leading framework for describing the nation's colleges and universities, has designated UL Lafayette an R1, its top tier. Just 3% of higher education institutions in the U.S. have achieved R1 status.

Nearly 19,000 students choose to attend UL Lafayette each fall.

To ensure them a strong academic foundation and the best opportunities to compete in the global job market, the University offers contemporary degrees and many online options.

UL Lafayette has been ranked among the best universities in the nation by U.S. News & World Report and The Princeton Review.

The University has one of the most distinctive athletic monikers in the nation: the Louisiana Ragin' Cajuns. The Ragin' Cajuns are members of the Sun Belt Conference, and student-athletes compete in 16 NCAA Division I sports, the highest level of collegiate athletics.

The University regularly receives support from the National Science Foundation, which funds only the most innovative research. In addition, 10 faculty members have earned the NSF's CAREER Award, given to outstanding researchers who have potential for leadership in their fields.

Community service is an essential component of the learning experience at UL Lafayette. It's a course requirement for all first-time freshmen, for example. Each academic year, students contribute about 150,000 hours of service as part of University courses. That service has an estimated value to Lafayette and surrounding region of about $1.8 million.

Some students also participate in UL Lafayette's AmeriCorps Community Service Program. Established in 1995, it is the only campus-based program in the state and is one of the oldest in the nation.

Louisiana's diverse cultures are reflected in the University's academics. For example, the archives of the Center for Louisiana Studies include one-of-a-kind recordings of Cajun and Creole musicians, oral histories and storytelling. UL Press specializes in books related to Louisiana, producing award-winning academic titles as well as best-selling general interest books.

UL Lafayette's Francophone studies doctoral degree program is the only one of its kind in the state. And, students may study roots music to earn a bachelor's degree in traditional music, one of only a handful of such programs nationwide.

The University has an extensive economic impact on the state and in the region. According to an independent study, residents who are UL Lafayette graduates add $2.2 billion to the state's economy. Also, every $1 of state funds invested in the University has a return of $8. In the years to come, UL Lafayette's impact on the economies of Louisiana and Acadiana is likely to be even greater than it is today.

University Seal

The seal was adopted May 11, 1926, when UL Lafayette was known as Southwestern Louisiana Institute. Dr. Edwin Stephens, the University's first president, helped design it, along with Ellsworth Woodward, director of the Newcomb College art school, and John McBryde, a professor at Tulane University. Elements of the seal reflect Louisiana's history as both a French and Spanish colony. The three fleurs-de-lis refer to France, while the castle denotes Louisiana's connection to Spain. The pelican is symbolic of Louisiana. Oak leaves represent the strength and endurance of the oak tree.

The seal includes the Latin motto "Fortier, Feliciter, Fideliter," which means "bravely, happily, faithfully."

The institution's name was updated in 1960, when it was recognized as a university and became the University of Southwestern Louisiana. In 1999, USL's name was changed to the University of Louisiana at Lafayette to better reflect its stature as the state's second-largest university and an institution with statewide and national — rather than regional — influence. In that same year, the seal was modified to include elements of the Acadian and Creole flags to reflect the University's cultural diversity. The gold star on a white background symbolizes Acadian culture; the red, gold and green stripes represent West African heritage.

ABOUT THE UNIVERSITY

Academic Dress and Heraldry

The academic dress worn by the faculty and administration in the procession today originated in medieval universities of Europe, where instructors were priests and members of religious orders. Students were clerks in holy orders, monks or priests themselves. In the unheated buildings, they wore habits with cowls, or hoods, that could be pulled over their heads for warmth.

In 1894, a commission of American educators met at Columbia College with the leading supplier of academic robes. It created a dress code that was eventually accepted by almost all universities and colleges in the United States. The code was modified slightly in 1932 and remains in use today.

Typically, degree candidates wear black gowns. At UL Lafayette, bachelor's gowns and doctor's gowns are vermilion; master's gowns are black. The University's distinctive fleur-de-lis is incorporated in the design of its graduation gowns.

Bachelor's gowns have pleated fronts, semi-stiff yokes and pointed sleeves. They are worn closed. The master's gown is worn open, with the forearm protruding through an opening in the long sleeve. The doctor's gown, also worn open, is more formal, with velvet panels around the neck that extend down the front edges. Three horizontal velvet bars are placed on the upper arm of a squared sleeve. The velvet is usually black, but may instead be a color that reflects the academic discipline related to the degree. The mortarboard is the usual headwear.

The most notable feature of academic dress is the hood, reminiscent of the monks' head coverings. The colors of the lining, folded so that they are exposed in the back, are the official colors and pattern of the university from which the individual received a degree. For those who have received a degree from UL Lafayette, for example, the hood is lined in vermilion with a white chevron. The master's hood is three and one half feet long; the doctor's hood, four feet.

The color of the velvet border on the hood indicates the academic discipline of the individual's degree. For example, the Ph.D., or doctor of philosophy degree, is identified by a blue border. Colors worn by members of the procession at UL Lafayette reflect its academic diversity; faculty members have earned advanced degrees from institutions across the United States, as well as abroad.

Fleur-de-lis

UL Lafayette's fleur-de-lis is a federally registered symbol. Historically, the fleur-de-lis has been associated with the French monarchy, and used in other political and religious contexts.

The University has used a fleur-de-lis as part of its identity since 1926, when three fleurs-de-lis were introduced in its seal.

Presidential Regalia

The University president wears a handcrafted medallion, a miniature of the University seal, during Commencement and other formal events. Its chain includes small plates engraved with the names of the institution's presidents.

UL Lafayette President Dr. E. Joseph Savoie also wears a lapel pin that once belonged to Dr. Edwin Stephens, the University's first president, who served from 1900 to 1938. The pin's design features the letters, "SLII," which stand for Southwestern Louisiana Industrial Institute. Stephens gave the pin to Dr. Joel Fletcher, the institution's third president, who served from 1941 to 1966.

Fletcher passed it down to his grandson, who gave it to Savoie as an inauguration gift in 2009.

University Ring

UL Lafayette's ring signifies the bond between the University's graduates and their alma mater. The red stone represents the University's primary color, vermilion, and also features its fleur-de-lis. The design incorporates other elements and images of campus life, including cypress and oak trees, the University's seal, and Martin Hall, the main administrative building. Inside each ring is the inscription, "heart and hand" — the final three words of the University's alma mater.

A MESSAGE FROM PRESIDENT SAVOIE TO NEW GRADUATES

Congratulations, members of the Class of 2025!

Today, you join the ranks of nearly 150,000 individuals who have graduated from our University since its founding in 1898. No doubt the graduates who preceded you felt the same sense of relief and accomplishment that you're experiencing today.

You're probably also feeling a little nostalgic. You are concluding a wonderful period filled with cherished friends, inspiring instructors and extraordinary opportunities.

As you think back over your time here, I hope you realize that you are different than you were when you arrived on campus. You have changed – and for the better. You possess more knowledge and more skills and, as a result, you are well prepared to pursue your professional and personal goals.

As you make this transition from student to graduate, remember that the bond between you and your alma mater is perpetual. Like all relationships, however, it is strengthened by attention and care.

There are many ways to stay connected to the University. You're now a member of the Alumni Association – but be an active member by attending events the organization sponsors. Some, such as game day tailgates, take place close to home, while alumni chapter functions are held in cities across the country.

Learning is a lifelong pursuit and, as you grow in your careers, you may find the need – or have the desire – to continue your education. You've already experienced the University's commitment to your success, in the classroom and online, so remember that your alma mater is always ready to help you achieve whatever dreams the future may hold.

Today, you'll leave here with a diploma. Display it. It commemorates your success and it is a visible reminder of what you have achieved; more important, it serves to inspire you to use the skills and knowledge you possess to work toward even greater accomplishments in the years ahead.

Like the thousands of graduates who preceded you, you are now an ambassador of this institution. No matter where life takes you, you'll represent the University of Louisiana at Lafayette.

You are prepared to do it well, and you will make us proud.

Congratulations and Geaux Cajuns!

Dr. Joseph Savoie
President

Dr. E. Joseph Savoie became the University's sixth president in 2008. Under his leadership, the University of Louisiana at Lafayette continues to concentrate on providing students with a high-quality education and a fulfilling college experience.

The University's president is known for successfully building strategic partnerships, especially within higher education. He served as Louisiana's Commissioner of Higher Education for 12 years, providing advice and policy direction for higher education across the state.

The president earned bachelor's and master's degrees from UL Lafayette, where he previously served as the University's first vice president for University Advancement. He also holds a doctorate in educational leadership from Columbia University's Teacher's College in New York.

He and his late wife, Gail Heinbach Savoie, have a daughter, Blaire; a son, Adam; and a granddaughter, Addison Marie.

EMINENT FACULTY AWARDS

Together with the University, the UL Lafayette Foundation annually honors outstanding faculty members for their commitment to and effectiveness in research, teaching, and service-learning outreach.

The Eminent Faculty Awards is a tradition of recognizing excellence. The Eminent Faculty program serves as the highest-level University recognition program honoring five faculty members for their outstanding efforts in teaching, research, and service-learning outreach.

The first Distinguished Professor Award was established in 1965 to recognize faculty members who excel in research, scholarship, or creative works, and who demonstrate a commitment to and effectiveness in teaching and make significant contributions to campus life and the community.

In 1992, the Distinguished Professor Awards program was expanded to incorporate the Ray P. Authement Excellence in Teaching Award honoring faculty members for their dedication to the profession and student learning. Instructional innovation, student performance in graduate or professional careers, and publications relating to pedagogy in their discipline are determining factors in the selection of these award recipients.

Exceptional service-learning outreach among faculty created a need for further program expansion and the Leadership Service Award was added in 2016 to recognize faculty members showing commitment and effectiveness to service learning. Combining service and classroom instruction, notable faculty integrate service learning as a key component of higher education providing students with skills and knowledge to become effective citizens and community leaders.

The name Distinguished Professor Awards was changed to Eminent Faculty Awards in 2015, encompassing the Distinguished Professor Award, Ray P.

Authement Excellence in Teaching Award, and Leadership Service Award. UL Lafayette faculty are now recognized for each of their primary roles as educators research, teaching, and service-learning outreach.

HONORARY DOCTORATE RECIPIENT

Richard Miles Landry was born 1938 in Cecilia, LA. Started saxophone lessons at the age of 10. At the age of 12 sang with the Saint Joseph Catholic Church Choir, learning the 16th Century Gregorian Chant. He graduated from Cecilia High School in 1956 and in 1963 graduated with a bachelor's degree in music education from ULL. Landry moved to NYC in 1969.

Landry's professional and collaborative partnerships read like the definitive "who's who" of influential late twentieth century musicians, artist, dancers and performers on the stage —

- Musicians: Phillip Glass (founding member 1969), Paul Simon, Bob Dylan, Talking Heads, Laurie Anderson, Lil Band o; Gold and Robert Plant
- Artist: Robert Rauschenberg, Keith Sonnier, Gordon Matta-Clark, Lawrence Weiner, Richard Serra.
- Performance: Joan Jonas
- Dancers: Trisha Brown, Deborah Hay, Jane Comfort
- Theater: Robert Wilson (5 productions as composer and performer, including "Einstein on the Beach" and that's the short version

Mr. Landry has performed his solo saxophone works in major venues in the USA (Carnegie Hall, the National Gallery, the Guggenheim Museum, the Metropolitan Opera House, Canada, Europe, Russia, Cuba, Haiti, South America, India, and Japan.

The list of his various forms of expression is long: He is a musician, composer, photographer, painter, video artist, producer and director. His paintings were recently exhibited in New Orleans last October, and a planned retrospective exhibition of his paintings, drawings, photographs, video and a solo concert is scheduled for the Hunter/Dunbar Projects in NYC. The opening is June 12th through September 6th, 2025. A painting exhibition is scheduled for the Ohr-O'Keefe Museum in Biloxi, Mississippi, Opening in January 2026.

He left his home at a young age in search of different influences and found them in New York City. His accomplishments notwithstanding, Richard "Dickey" Landry may appear to be the least likely Louisiana native to be inducted into the Music Hall of Fame and be awarded by the National Endowment as Humanist of the Year in 2024. His multit talented career spanning decades is mind boggling in its breadth and scope, and the connecting line through it all — MUSIC.
