3 University Committee on Graduate Student Success and Retention Annual Report

4 P. de Mahy reviewed the report provided by E. Sandoz outlining the progress and goals of the 5 committee that was presented during the Annual Meeting of the Graduate Faculty. He noted the 6 updated mission and membership that was intended to reflect the committee's focus on holistic student 7 success. A discussion followed on survey data, including the Exit and Climate surveys and how they will 8 inform future reporting in the Fall semester. P. de Mahy added that the committee shifted to a bi-9 annual calendar of review and that the agenda items for all of the meetings in the Fall and Spring and 10 included those details in the report. Motion made to accept the report. Motion seconded and carried.
