

Advance / Student Center for Research, Creativity and Scholarship Graduate Assistantship Opening

The Student Center for Research, Creativity and Scholarship (SCRCS) invites applications from master's degree seeking graduate students to fill the following graduate service assistantship position.

Primary Duties and Responsibilities:

As a member of the SCRCS team, graduate students appointed to the ASRE Pathways Systems assistantship position in Advance gain valuable experience in program development, technology implementation, and cross-departmental collaboration. This GSA position offer a unique opportunity to contribute to dynamic program and develop a diverse skill set applicable to diverse career paths.

The graduate student appointed to this graduate assistantship role supports the ongoing development and implementation of a co-curricular transcript that documents undergraduate research experiences. This role is essential for ensuring the accurate tracking and assessment of ASRE Pathways across all departments and colleges. Its work includes, but is not limited to, collaborating broadly with the ASRE Manager to implement, enhance, and promote the co-curricular transcript; training on the Campus-Group application system to ensure accurate data collection, entry, and management; leading training and support to faculty and staff on the use of the Campus Group's application necessary for tracking and assessing ASRE Pathways; communicating with students to answer general questions and provide updates related to ASRE Pathway completion; compile and present data collected from students and faculty relate to ASRE Pathways process and completion, and participate in all SCRCS activities.

Eligibility and Additional Considerations:

Applicants must be UL Lafayette graduate students in good academic standing who have been admitted unconditionally.

Students in the MBA Business Administration, MS Communication, MS Counseling, MS Computer Science, MS Communicative Disorders, MS Informatics, and MS Psychology graduate programs are eligible to apply. Students pursuing a different graduate degree program with a research focus directly connected to the mission of SCRCS and the duties described above may be considered.

If an international graduate student, your visa status may place restrictions on your employment eligibility; if you are not certain if your visa status permits holding an assistantship, contact the Office of International Affairs in the Division of Global Engagement.

Appointment Terms and Additional Considerations:

Graduate assistantship appointments with the Learning Center are for the academic year and usually begin in the fall semester. This position will begin in August 2026.

Appointment requires unconditional admission, full-time graduate enrollment, and satisfactory completion of 20 hours of in-person, on-campus duties each week during the academic terms. Appointment does not require completion of duties when classes are not in session (i.e., during intercessions, student holidays, and semester breaks).

Continuation of appointment is contingent upon successful completion of assistantship duties and satisfactory progress toward the degree. Reappointment beyond the 2026-2027 academic year is not guaranteed; continuation is dependent upon the same conditions as well as budgetary considerations and approval.

Compensation:

Compensation includes a waiver of tuition and mandatory fees, plus a monthly stipend that adheres to University minimum levels. Assistantship stipend and tuition/fee waiver benefits will be prorated to start date.

- For the 2026-2027 academic year, the minimum stipend is $1,150 per month for master's students, totaling $11,500 paid over ten months.
- The value of tuition/fee waiver for an academic-year assistantship in 2026-2027 is at least $11,202 for U.S. resident graduate students and $27,674 for non-resident international graduate students enrolled in 9 graduate credit hours per semester. For students taking more credits, this benefit is even higher.
- The accompanying fee waiver does not cover 100% of the supplemental insurance fee for international students on F-1, J-1, or other non-immigrant visas.

To Apply:

To apply, send letter of application that demonstrates a direct connection between their graduate degree program or research focus to the SCRCs mission and/or duties above, resume or CV, and contact information for professional references to advance@louisiana.edu.

Questions should be directed to Dr. Sherry Kraysky, Executive Director of the Student Center for Research, Creativity, and Scholarship at sherry.kraysky@louisiana.edu.

To ensure full consideration, apply by July 30. Review of applications will begin immediately and will continue until the position is filled.
