

Dr. Jaimie Hebert

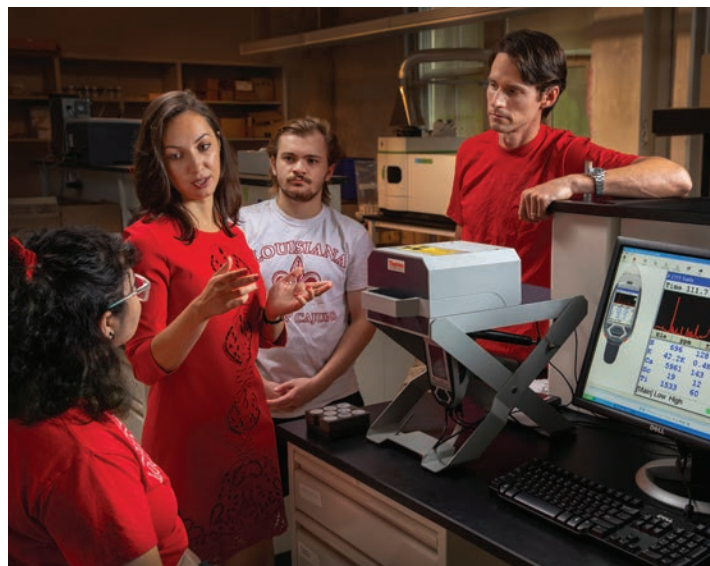

Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs

STUDENTS' NEW NORMAL

DEDICATED FACULTY & STAFF

PROGRAM DEVELOPMENT

Master's degree in athletic training

State's only undergraduate bioengineering concentration

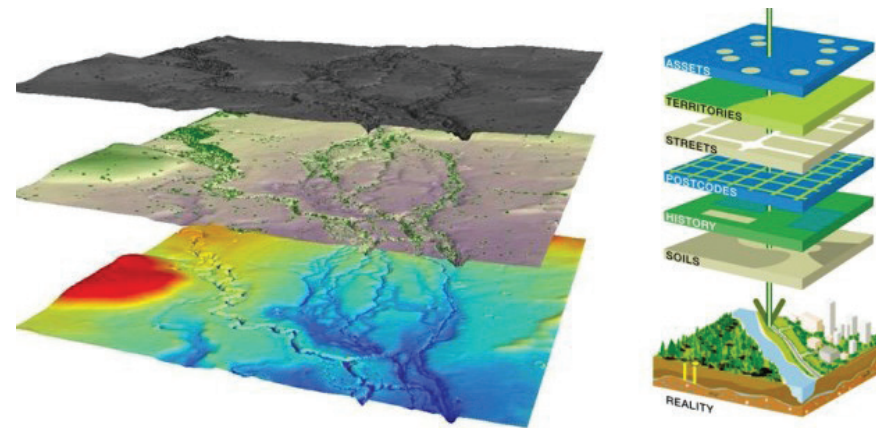

Recording arts concentration

First dual enrollment program in College of Engineering

State's only master's degree in industrial chemistry

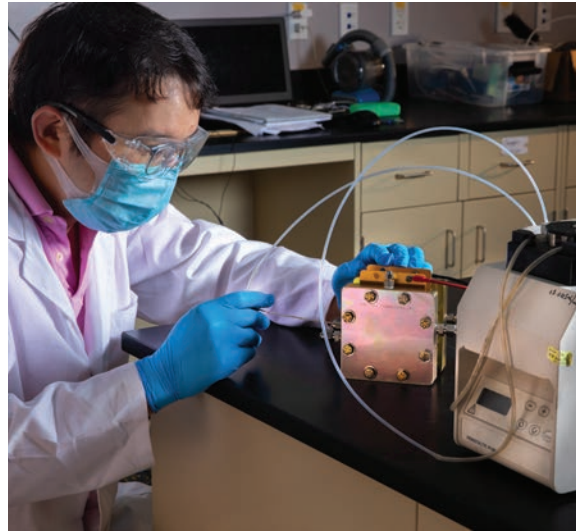

Certificate programs in geographic information systems (undergraduate) and population health (graduate)

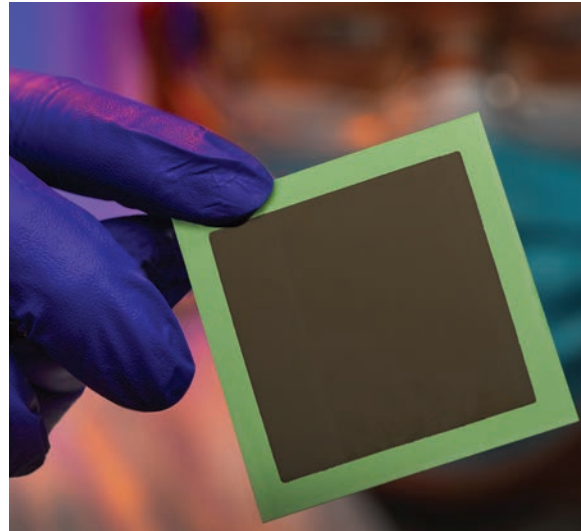

Online option for state's only master's in informatics program

DEMONSTRATED SUCCESS

$1M federal grant boosts research to convert carbon dioxide into ethylene

Aircraft fuel cell development takes flight with grant

UL Lafayette had a role in historic COVID-19 vaccine development

University researchers find creative and innovative ways to mitigate flooding

The College of Nursing and Allied Health Professions implements telehealth

A NEW LEARNING ENVIRONMENT

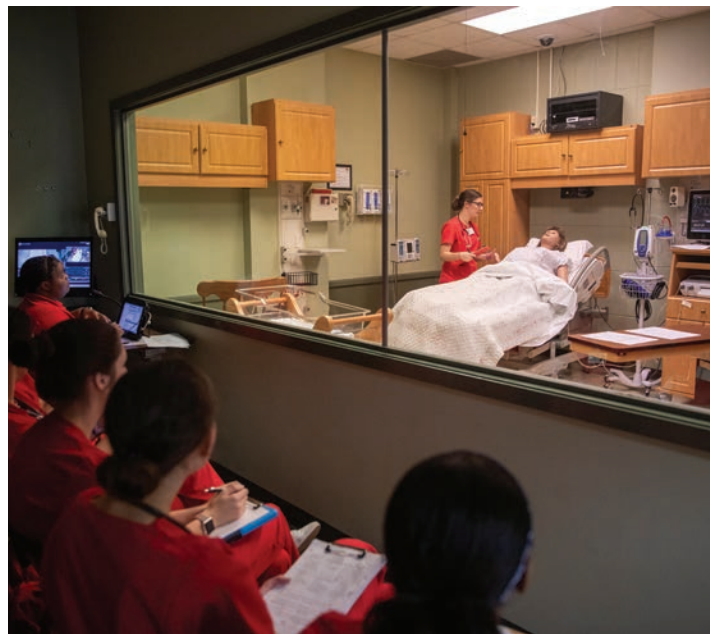

59% of face-to-face course sections switched to remote learning

DIRECTLY IMPACTING

75%
of students

81%
of faculty

A PATH FORWARD

STRATEGIC PLANNING

Align institutional priorities

Design a path toward success

Establish a common direction

Define timelines

